General Notice Regarding Security Deposit

This is for general information to all patients and the relatives of patients admitted and/or seeking admission or medical support through Sonarpur Moonlight Foundation that a security deposit of Rupees One Lakh (₹1,00,000/-) shall be deposited, as determined by the Foundation.

The security deposit shall be utilized for the purpose of meeting expenses arising from emergency hospitalization, including but not limited to admission charges, emergency medical procedures, diagnostics, medicines, and allied services. The security deposit shall also serve as a safeguard against unpaid charges, damages, misuse of facilities, or any other financial liability incurred by the patient and/or the authorized relative of the patient during the period of treatment or stay at the Foundation.

The security deposit shall be paid by the patient or their authorized representative at the time of admission in case of new admission. In the case of patients already admitted, the security deposit shall be paid within fifteen (15) days from the date of publication of this notification on the Foundation's website, and immediately upon occurrence of an emergency situation, if such emergency arises within the said fifteen (15) day period.

Any unutilized balance of the security deposit, after settlement of emergency hospitalization expenses and other allied expenses, or after adjustment against future medical assistance as applicable, shall be refunded without interest to the patient or their authorized representative.

Sonarpur Moonlight Foundation reserves the right to revise the amount of the security deposit from time to time, as may be required.
